

ADING & NASURULLOH

Ading

- Work in Taiwan for 3 and a half years
- Copper factory

Nasurulloh

- Work in Taiwan for 5 years
- used to work in the car parts factory, now working in the copper factory with Ading

THE REASONS

Simple documents handled procedures

Wide range of jobs

No specific language requirements
(Ex: it is required in Korean & Japan)

THE HARDSHIP THEY FACED

"When we just came to Taiwan, our employer didn't give us enough break, and it led to work very tired. Other than it, we couldn't adapt with language barrier, and also employers also exploiting migrants workers on the jobs."

They also gave an example that they are always assigned the dirtiest and most tiring work in the factory, while the locals do easy packing and other work in the air-conditioned room.

They told us about loneliness and homesickness that they cannot go back to home for three years, and the difficulties they faced.
